HOW HAS THE FUND PERFORMED?

This section tells you how this class of the fund has performed over the past 10 years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the class' returns.

It is important to note that this doesn't tell you how the class will perform in the future. Also your actual after-tax return will depend on your personal tax situation.

Average return. As at May 31, 2011, a person who invested $1,000 in this class 10 years ago now has $1,207. This works out to an annual compound return of 1.9%.

Year-by-year returns. This chart shows how the class has performed in each of the past 10 years. The class dropped in value in none of the 10 years.

HOW RISKY IS IT?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. Matrix Funds Management has rated this fund's risk as low.

For a description of the specific risks of this fund, see the fund's simplified prospectus.

ARE THERE ANY GUARANTEES?

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

WHO IS THIS FUND FOR?

Investors who:

- have short-term investment goals
- require low investment risk

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The following table shows the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Class A units of the fund.

1. Sales charges

You have to choose a sales charge option when you buy this class of the fund. Ask about the pros and cons of each option.

A WORD ABOUT TAX

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

2. Fund Expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns.

As of December 31, 2010, the class' expenses were 1.97% of its value. This equals $20 for every $1,000 invested.

Annual rate
(as a % of the fund's value)

Management expense ratio (MER)

This is the total of the fund's Class A management fee and operating expenses. Matrix Funds Management waived some of the fund's expenses. If it had not done so, the MER would have been higher.

0.32%

Trading expense ratio (TER)

These are the fund's Class A trading costs.

Trailing commission

Matrix Funds Management pays your investment firm a trailing commission for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and advice your investment firm provides to you. Investment firms may pay part of the trailing commission to their representatives.

The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose:

- Initial sales charge trailing commission - up to 0.30% of the value of your investment each year. This equals $3 each year for every $1,000 invested.
- Deferred sales charge trailing commission - up to 0.30% of the value of your investment each year. This equals $3 each year for $1,000 invested.
- Low load deferred sales charge trailing commission - up to 0.30% of the value of your investment each year. This equals $3 each year for $1,000 invested.

3. Other Fees

You may have to pay other fees when you sell or switch units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Short-term trading fees will generally not apply in connection with redemptions or switches as this fund is intended as a short-term investment.

WHAT IF I CHANGE MY MIND?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
